I am trying to get the raw(unsorted) data of a table using Laravel migrations. I use Schema::get('tbl_name')->toBase(true)->getData() but it does not return the raw data without sorting. If you have an idea please let me know. A: If you create a model for that table you can use: $table = DB::table('tbl_name')->selectRaw('id, value')->get(); Hope this helps. By CompuBox By Mike Coppinger:Kell Brook (22-0, 20 KOs) won the fourteenth round and at the press conference after it, said that the finish was the best round he ever fought and the most satisfying. I'm sure all of the people that have seen the 10th best round in professional boxing got up from the seat in anticipation after seeing that. Brook really moved around, using his legs to slip away from a right hand and was aggressive during the bout, which is something we haven't seen too often from him. Most of the time Brook has been able to solve a fighter with superior power with his pure speed and accuracy. He was never going to win the way he did this time, but we got to see a glimpse of the new Kell Brook and it was quite glorious. "I have to say that this was the toughest fight I have ever had in my career. It was a war for 12 rounds and I am very proud to have walked out with a victory. The 10th round was the best round I have ever fought in my career. It was the most satisfying round I have ever fought in my career. Congratulations to Amir Khan, I wish him all the best in the future and thank him for the opportunity to fight him." Khan (28-3, 19 KOs) walked around for
