Here are a few tips to keep in mind as you think about your company's name. First of all, your name has to be memorable and evocative. Second, it has to be easy to spell. And last but not least, it has to be memorable and desirable! If you have a website and want to better promote your brand, then a custom domain name is an important factor. A custom domain can be much easier to remember than a third party site. Let's say that you want to make sure that anyone that goes to your website thinks "I'm at www.mybusinessname.com" instead of "I'm at www.ryansprouse.com". The name you choose will help you achieve this goal. If you want to be noticed when your domain name is not very descriptive, then you are in luck. A domain name that is short and catchy will get you the best results. So, think about your name now. A good name will not only be a signifier of the company, but it will also be a signifier of what the company offers to its customers. Beautiful, simple and compact! My fellow designers and I developed this icon set for the sole purpose of improving our communication and interaction with clients. We hope it helps you improve your communication, too.
