(Birmingham Police Department) Joe Songer and Seth SlabaughThe (Birmingham) Courier-Journal A former saleswoman charged with assaulting a Birmingham police officer who was trying to arrest her teenage son now says she was provoked, basing her contention on cellphone videos of her son's encounter with an officer on her phone while she sat in a car. "I went through a lot of therapy, and I've come out the other side," said Trina Weiss, 41, whose misdemeanor battery conviction in June will be expunged after she completes two years of probation. "I'm a better person than I was. It's a learning experience. I want to help other people." Weiss, who grew up in Birmingham, recently told her story to Seth Slabaugh,
