The free-zone countries under US occupation in Japan, occupied Korea, and Vietnam include Thailand, Korea, Vietnam, Taiwan, Laos, Cambodia and Iraq. In Korea, US military special operations forces have killed five Americans, and in Cambodia US death squads have killed 26,000 Southeast Asian people, including Americans. . In the original documents for the US occupation of Iraq, it was stated there would be no "mass executions" under the occupation. This did not mean no mass killings by the occupation authorities. The documents also ordered ten military death squads to be established to carry out regular body count operations in the occupied nation. In 2006, 6,027 people were reported to have been killed by the security forces of the occupation during March and April 2006. This figure rose to 6,268 people by May 2006.In May 2006, 6,367 people were reported to have been killed by security forces in April, May and June. By July 2006, the figure had increased to 7,673 killings in the province. By November 2006, to 10,186 killings in the province. The figure was 9,969 for June 2007 (national police figures) and by September 2007, a new American governor appointed by President Bush, took over and the total for the year was 11,906 – up nearly 50 percent from the previous year, two and a half times the highest figure for 2005. . You can't tell me that these deaths are not war crimes. . But they do not care. Cd labels are a big pain and that is why a number of people buy a computer with DVD burner built in. 1. Installing player 2. Installing Cd with all utilities 3. Installing label maker 4. Installing cleaning system DVD labels. 1
